FROM THE LSFSC PRESIDENT

By Longranger Rick
SASS # 62056

Sure wished we had gotten to shoot in January, but 13 degrees was a little on the chilly side. Here's hoping for better weather for the rest of the year.

Roundup will be Memorial Day weekend, so mark your calendars. We have LSFSC belt buckles ordered, some side match trophies in process and still putting together a schedule of events for the weekend. If you have an idea or event you would like to see, let me know.

Now for the work part, we need to have some work days for floor repair, cleanup and maybe setting up some different stages. So let's get together February 20th, Saturday morning about 09:00 for a work party. If it's raining or icy we'll have to postpone so use your own judgment. We'll plan for an alternate weekend of March the 6th, 1st Saturday, same time same channel.

And once again it's that time of the year to renew club memberships, so we can afford to put some new boards down in the stages.

FROM THE CVV PRESIDENT

Billy Bob Evans
SASS# 53658

I do not have a lot to talk about this month. I am sorry that I was not able to be there on Saturday but I had a work commitment that I could not get out of. Sunday's match was great! The weather held so it was not too cold. We had a good turnout and I got my new gun cart from Old Bob.

One piece of business that I do need to bring up is dues. If you have not done so already, please get your dues in - a copy of the membership form is attached. It can be mailed in or you can bring it to the next match.

I also want to let every one know that we have new cooks running the shooter's café, Sweet Beulah Land and her daughter and son-in-law have taken over for Calico Calie. They tell me most meals will be $5.00 and that includes a drink.

WHAT IS YOUR FAVORITE COWBOY ACTION RESOURCE?

Our New shooters need your help! We are currently putting together a list of places to find Cowboy Action "Stuff" for new shooters. If you have some websites, emails, addresses and or phone numbers of local area dealers and locations that have helped you, then drop me a line! Where did you buy your guns? Who did your slick job? Where'd you find your guncart? Contact Willie Earp at KWCiar@att.net

COWBOY ACTION NEW SHOOTERS CLINIC

Do you know someone who would like to get into Cowboy Action, but just has not made the PLUNGE yet? Do you know someone who has never shot a Cowboy Action Match, and would like to try it out without having to buy their own guns?

For a minimal $10 fee they will get to shoot two stages with instruction on everything a new shooter needs to know, and get a free lunch to boot! All the guns and ammo will be provided. All they need to do is sign up and show up! Help them out by printing off the attached application and give it to them! This class is open to the first 40 who sign up so do it NOW!

THE LAW OF CGM (Critical Gun Mass)

By Colonel Dan
SASS #24025

What follows is an executive summary of a study generated after years of diligent experimentation and analysis of the phenomenon known as gun buying action versus spousal reaction-not always of the equal and opposite kind we learned about in physics class.

What is the reaction of your spouse, hereafter referred to as the party of the second part, when you, hereafter referred to as the party of the first part, walk in the door with that impossible to hide gun box-that long slim box of the rifle class or the squatly box of the revolver class that you just can't pass off as a shoe box. Over the years the party of the second part has seen untold numbers of examples and can now spot that all too familiar box even as the party of the first part pulls into the driveway-they have developed a 6th and 7th sense about them by now.

In the early days of our marriage, the purchase of guns was a significant event. There was no question about it Miss Mary knew when I came home with one. And since I didn't have all that many (yet) she could tell that gun I was handling was new even if she didn't see me in the act of walking in the house with it. The reaction always followed in that quiet southern way, "Is that you new gun?" Miss Mary is liked that-her reaction is one of a proper southern belle's subtle, albeit directed and unmistakable disbelief and the attempt at guilt elicitation in the Colonel.

I had to endure this over the years until it seemed to reach a point of noticeable diminishment. I wondered about this and commenced the study in question.

My work led me to discover the Law of Critical Gun Mass. The law is of simple nature but very important to the conduct of life. I discovered that there comes a point when the party of the first part has so many guns that the party of the second part can no longer distinguish old from new and the party of the second part becomes totally oblivious to the new toy of the party of the first part!!!!

Eureka!! I had discovered the Law of Critical Gun Mass (CGM) for all those of us infected with terminal Gun Disease. A disease discovered and named by those two Coltoholics, Squint Westwood and Colorado.

In Miss Mary's case the all-important point of CGM was reached at about gun number 24. I am now way beyond that point and my life is so much simpler these days. I have so many guns that she can't tell if the one I am fondling is something old, something new, something borrowed or something blue! Slick eh? Life is great but I can't tell you if CGM is different for southern ladies as it is for ladies from other areas of the country-a point for further study and detailed analysis.

Now the Law of CGM has been found to differ in each household depending on number of guns on hand on the day of the joining of the party of the first part with the party of the second part. Further reaction is then determined by the party of the second parts powers of observation and the level of natural anxiety over guns and/or money and the level of gun disease present at birth in the party of the second part. If the party of the second part is also infected with gun disease or at least has a tolerance for it, the reaction levels are affected unless the factor of jealousy is calculated. If the party of the second part wants just as many guns as the party of the first part then anytime the party of the first part acquires a new toy, the party of the second part reacts vehemently in fear that they are being left behind and the natural instinct to catch up takes over, fueled by the libido of the party of the second part.

I am going to ask the honorable Mack Weston and the estimable Professor Cubby Bear to see if we can't come up with a formula that we here at SBSS HQ could publish to help others determine the level of CGM for their party of the second part. Although unrelated to our normal studies of Stealth Bullets, let it be known that the SBSS is dedicated to serve the shooting troopers of our age in any way we can.

Note from the Editor:

Colonel Dan is purveyor of the Stealth Bullet Shooting Society (SBSS) and regular contributor to the SASS Cowboy Chronicle. Members of the SBSS are dedicated to finding the source of the dreaded Stealth Bullet which has the nasty habit of sneaking into our Cowboy Action shoots without our knowledge.

The next time that the spotters want to give you a miss on a stage, that you knew you hit, just ask yourself. Why did that bullet hit that target and not make a sound? Well, it MUST have been a Stealth Bullet!
